APPOMATTOX MIDDLE SCHOOL ESSAY WINNERS

The Pamplin Ruritan Club, in an effort to improve community living and to strengthen community pride, has performed many services for the community of Pamplin. Their latest effort has been to improve the already existing baseball field in Pamplin. They have graded the field and they plan to fence in the area, install bleachers and a concession stand, and make a parking area available. The next step will be to set up a picnic area.

With these plans already made and in progress, the Pamplin Ruritan Club sought additional ideas and suggestions from the students of the county through an essay contest. At Appomattox Middle School, two groups - the seventh and the eighth graders--would enter the contest. English teachers informed the students of the contest and either assigned the writing of an essay or asked for volunteers. The eighth grade essays were read and judged as were the seventh grade essays. Seven essays were judged as winners. For the seventh grade, Michelle Penn won 1st place, Gaye Moore came in 2nd place, and Cathy Ragland won 3rd place. In the 8th grade, there was a tie for first place between Karen Johnson and Kathy Lewis. Sabrina Richardson came in 2nd place, and Gina George came in 3rd place.

The seven students were given awards by Mr. Coleman from the Pamplin Ruritan. First place was awarded $10.00, $5.00 went to 2nd place, and $2.50 went to 3rd place. Many other students were involved in the contest and choosing the winners was a difficult process. All the ideas were submitted to the Ruritan Club and there will certainly be some nice things going on in Pamplin thanks to the Ruritan Club and some interested students.

Now officers for the Latin Club at ACHS are shown in above phto. They are, back row, left to right, Lisa Moore, Becky Mitchell, Cheryl Elliott, and Beth Carter; and on front row, left to right, Laurie McLean, Pam Guill, Judy Zimmerman, and J. J. Dalton.

It was held at the Appomattox Middle School and the program began with the installation of the 1977-78 Latin Club officers. Debbie Webber and Lisa Dickerson, 1976-77 president and vice-president, installed the incoming officers who are: president, J. J. Dalton; vice-president, Judy Zimmerman; secretary-treasurer, Sharon Woody; reporter, Pam Guill; chaplain, Ricky Mitchell; parliamentarian, Lisa Moore; and historian, Laurie McLean.

After the dinner, the officers, parents, guests, and students were shown slides of Rome by Beth Carter and Cheryl Elliott.

The evening proved to be a big success with a total of 54 people attending. The club hopes that all enjoyed themselves and we look forward to a bigger, brighter year, next year.
